Event Description:
TALK AND TRIP TO CLARK ART INSTITUTE
VAN GOGH and NATURE EXHIBIT

On Mon. August 31

Please join the Friends of the Clifton Park-Halfmoon Library, and local storyteller and art enthusiast Kate Dudding, www.KateDudding.com on Monday, August 31 when the Friends will sponsor a trip to the Clark Art Institute to view “Van Gogh and Nature”.

The program will begin at 9am in program room C-D at the Library where Kate Dudding will present an introductory talk. We will then proceed by carpool to the Clark Art Institute in Williamstown, MA to view the special Van Gogh exhibit.

The library lecture is free of charge; admission to the museum is $20, free to Clark members. The museum admission will be lower if we get a group of 20 paying visitors.

For more information about this program please contact Rhona at busplus1@gmail.com or 505-1303. Advance reservations are requested.
