Vintage Dresses Through the Years

Please come to a beautiful presentation of our Vintage Dresses Through the Years Exhibit on Wednesday, March 25th, 2015 at 7pm at the Halfmoon Town Hall's A. James Bold Meeting Room.

This collection represents 104 years of fashion all worn by women of the same family, dating back to a wedding dress from 1869 all the way to the mod-styles of the 1970's. Donated to us by Ginny Golden, her family dresses have survived through the years and now we get to enjoy them in all of their beauty and spender along with the stories of the ladies who wore them.

Don't miss a chance to see such a unique and rare collection of fashion!

Due to aging deterioration, some dresses may not be able to be shown again.

Refreshments will be served.
