

James A. Buck
Union Army
Civil War
1861-1863

Corporal James A. Buck, Civil War lived all his life in Halfmoon with his wife and children. He fought in the Civil War under Captain Lucius E. Wilson. James served in Company D. 22nd Regiment of New York State. He enrolled on the 22nd day of April 1861 and mustered out in Albany on the 19th day of June 1863.

After the war James attended many Civil War reunions where he received a ribbon at each reunion. He received his last ribbon in 1907. He is buried in the Union Cemetery, Halfmoon where his grave is marked with a GAR star.

James had 2 grandchildren Richard H. Guyer and Dorothy Samuels. James' brick is in Memory of his grandchildren by their grandchildren. Richard's (Dick) grandchildren Lynda, Karen, Kathy, Lorraine & Jim and Dorothy's grandchildren, Ken, Paul, Susan, & Sherry.