

Jill A. Daigle
United States Army
1987 –1989

Specialist Jill Daigle

Army Veteran, Specialist Jill Daigle Served in the Signal Support Company in Berlin, Germany during the end of the Cold War; 1988 through 1989. She enlisted in 1987 and was trained as an Army Data Communications Switching Center Specialist. She received the Army Occupations Medal.

After her service she worked for the New York State Bar Association for 10 years in Data Entry and Graphic Arts. She studied Graphic Arts at Russell Sage College in Albany during her years at the New York State Bar Association. She is currently a full time professional Fine Artist showing her work in galleries, juried shows, private collections and great camps in the Adirondacks.

Jill lives in Halfmoon, New York with her husband and has three daughters.