THERE'S MUSIC IN THE AIR

There's music in the air,
When the infant morn is nigh,
And faint its blush is seen
On the bright and laughing sky.
Many a harp's ecstatic sound,
With its thrill of joy profound,
While we list, enchanted there,
To the music in the air.

There's music in the air,
When the noontide's sultry beam,
Reflects a golden light
On the distant mountain stream.
When beneath some greatful shade,
Sorrow's aching head is laid,
Sweetly to the spirit there,
Comes the music in the air.

AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

O beautiful for patriot dream
That sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam,
Undimmed by human tears!
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!
